and by appointment.

Required readings:
Henretta, Brody and Dumenil, America: A Concise History Vol.2--Since 1865 (third ed.)
Primary sources on the course website as assigned. The list will be delivered to you via your campus e-mail address. They can also be accessed through this web site:
(http://www.bedfordstmartins.com/henrettaconcise2e/)
Specific reading assignments will be announced in class.

Course requirements:
(1) 3 examinations--All of these will be essay tests; the final exam will have a comprehensive section
(2) 7 Identification quizzes--These will occur about every two weeks and will be based on particular names, terms, events, etc. that will be given in each lecture. One map test.
(3) 4-7 page essay review on a primary or secondary source chosen from bibliography provided.
Due Friday, March 14.
(4) Oral history interview report or a paper based on an analysis of periodicals.
Due Thursday, April 24.

Grading:
Final grades will be figured as a weighted average of the various course requirements. Each area will be scored out of a possible 100 points:
Exam 1 15%
Exam 2 15%
Comprehensive Final Exam 3 25%
Quizzes and map test 20%
Essay review 15%
Oral History or Periodical report 10%

Each student is expected to complete all of the course requirements. I will impose a penalty for any requirement that is not completed by the end of the course. It is the student’s responsibility to demonstrate that the work done in each assignment is his/her own. You must supply study notes, rough drafts and outlines, and research notes if requested.

Examinations:
All exams will be essay in format. You will be given a list of topics from which the questions for each exam will be drawn. The exams will be taken without books or notes:
Exam 1 Friday, February 29
Exam 2 Friday, April 11
Exam 3 (final) Week of May 12-15
as per exam schedule.
Quizzes and Map Test:
During each lecture, ID words will be listed on the board. The quizzes will require you to identify and explain the significance of several of these word or phrases.

Quiz 1 Thurs., Feb. 7          Quiz 4 Weds., March 26
Quiz 2 Weds., Feb. 20          Quiz 5 Weds., April 9
Quiz 3 Weds., March 5          Quiz 6 Weds., April 23
Quiz 7 Weds., May 7

You will be given a map handout and tested over the places and geographical features listed:
Map Test–Thursday, February 14.

Attendance Policy:
I expect students to attend every class meeting, and I will take attendance beginning with week two. Any student who misses more than 10% of the class meetings (5 classes) for any reason--excused or unexcused--will be penalized .5% of the final grade for each additional class missed. Exceptions to this policy will only be made in unusual circumstances and only at my discretion.

Penalties for Academic Dishonesty:
Students must be prepared to demonstrate that work on essays, papers, and quizzes is their own. Any quotes or other material from primary or secondary materials must be cited properly. Cheating and/or plagiarism will not be tolerated. I will firmly adhere to the college’s policies in this area.

The following is taken from the Source and defines both plagiarism and cheating:

Plagiarism
Plagiarism is the presentation of information (either written or oral) as one’s own when some or all of the information was derived from some other source. Specific types of plagiarism encountered in written and oral assignments include the following:
• Sources have been properly identified, but excerpts have been quoted without proper use of quotation marks; or the material has been slightly modified or rephrased rather than restated in the student’s own words.
• Key ideas or items of information derived from specific sources that present material that is not common knowledge have been presented without proper identification of the source or sources.
• Unidentified excerpts from other sources have been woven into the student’s own presentation.
• A paper or speech may be a mosaic of excerpts from several sources and presented as the student’s own.
• An entire paper or speech has been obtained from some other source and presented as the student’s own.
• Texts in another language are translated into English and presented as the student’s own.

Cheating
Cheating consists of any unpermitted use of notes, texts or other sources so as to give an unfair advantage to a student in completing a class assignment or an examination. Intentionally aiding another student engaged in academic dishonesty is also considered cheating. Submission of the same work (essay, speech, art piece, etc.) to fulfill assignments in separate classes requires the permission of both faculty members (if both courses are being taken in the same semester), or the permission of the second faculty member (if they are taken during different semesters).

Penalties

- Deliberate Plagiarism and Cheating. In cases of deliberate plagiarism, and in all cases of cheating and attempted cheating, the work assigned will be failed. At the instructor’s discretion, the student may also fail the course (regardless of the grade-weight of the work assigned).

[See pp. 8-10 in the Source for full text.]

Disability Statement:

Manchester College, in compliance with federal guidelines, is committed to assuring students with disabilities equal access to programs and activities that are provided to students without disabilities.

Any student who feels s/he may need an accommodation based on the impact of a disability should contact Bonnie O’Connell, the Director of Services for Students with Disabilities, to establish eligibility and to coordinate reasonable accommodations. It is the student’s responsibility to self-disclose their disability. Students whose accommodation requests are approved will be provided with confidential letters to deliver to their professors which verify the nature of the student’s disability and documents the need for auxiliary aids and services and/or academic adjustments/accommodations. Students are encouraged to meet with each professor early in the semester to discuss the academic implications of the disability as they relate to the specific course and to request appropriate accommodation. The Disabilities Office is located in the Success Center (second floor of the Union) telephone 260.982.5076 to schedule an appointment.
