

Great Depression Journal

Name: _____

Teacher: Miss. Katona

Date : _____

Title of Work: _____

	Criteria				Points
	1	2	3	4
Has four journal entries that are creative, well formed, have all the required information and at least two paragraphs.	Journal entries do not captivate, not a lot of creativity, only a couple of sentences long. One or two journal entries only, and do not have the required information.	A little creativity, only one paragraph long. Only has three completed journal entries and are missing some of the required information.	Some creativity, more than one paragraph long but still not two paragraphs. Has all journal entries but some required things are missing.	Very creative. Has two full paragraphs for each journal entry. All required information is accounted for.	_____
Grammar/Mechanics.	Has four or more grammar mistakes.	Has two to three grammar mistakes.	Has only one grammar mistake.	No grammar mistakes can be found.	_____
Creativity.	Has little to no creativity with journal- no pictures, no attempt to make it look creative.	Has one picture, but still not a lot of creativity.	Has two pictures, some color.	Has nice pictures, uses color appropriately, fun fonts.	_____
Format of the journal.	Is missing more than two key pieces, such as the works cited or the reflection piece. Not in the right order.	At least one key piece is missing, and things are not in the right order.	Everything is complete but it is in the wrong order.	Everything is there and complete and in the right order.	_____
Reflection Piece	Reflection is vague, only a sentence or two, and does not answer the questions that it is supposed to.	Reflection has some detail, only a few sentences, and only answers one of the questions.	Reflection is detailed, but only a few sentences. Answers both questions.	Reflection is very detailed, a full paragraph and answers both questions.	_____
				Total---->	_____

Teacher Comments:
