Conflicts

The structure of the conflicts in A Raisin in the Sun cause the rising and falling action

- What impact do these conflicts have on the meanings of the characters?
- How would these conflicts contribute to the play aesthetically? How would you feel watching this play?
- Would you feel connected to these characters because of their conflicts? Do the characters seem more real?

Assignment: Choose one of the conflicts and write a paragraph analyzing how Hansberry’s decision to incorporate this into the play reflects it overall.
