Baby Bear and the Big Fish

The bears liked to go fishing down at the river. "I can see some fish today," said Baby Bear. "Here they come." Mother Bear went into the river, and she got some fish. Father Bear got some fish, too. "We are good at fishing," said Father Bear. "Where is a fish for me?" said Baby Bear. "I can see a big fish," said Father Bear. "This fish is for me!" shouted Baby Bear. Baby Bear got the big fish in the net. Away went the fish. Baby Bear and the fish went up the river! "Help! Help!" shouted Baby Bear. "I'm going up the river with the fish!" "I'm coming," said Father Bear. Father Bear came back with Baby Bear and the fish. "Look at my big fish," said Baby Bear. "I'm good at fishing."
