

Pretend that you take a trip to the rainforest.

- 1. Write a letter to your friend explaining the things that you saw, heard, smelled, and felt while you were there. Make sure to include a good amount of detail for your friend so that he or she can enjoy what you experienced. Make your letter interesting.
- 2. Tell your friend, in the letter, what your favorite part of your visit was and why. Also tell them about something during your visit that you did not find enjoyable.
- 3. In your letter, tell your friend which rainforest you are in and where it is located.
- 4. Include a picture of your trip to the rainforest. You should draw this yourself so that it matches your letter.

You can make your trip realistic, funny, scary, or stressful. Make sure to make it an interesting letter that you may actually send to a friend. You want to use good writing skills so that your friend can understand what you are trying to share.

You may use the Picture Paper in this worksheet. Use your own paper to write the letter. I have given you a reminder of how a friendly letter would look. You can use lined paper or computer paper BUT DO NOT USE THE OUTLINE I PROVIDED.

This is only an example. I want you to come up with you own paper to do this letter.
